3. Entrepreneur alumnus of “KROK” University participated in Start UP Show.

Natalia Zaverukha, member of Management Board of “KROK” University Alumni Association, member of “Business League” is the founder of “Plushkin” start-up. On 13.02.2015 Natalia participated in the Start UP Show with Nescafe, presenting her project. You can watch the video, following the link. “Plushkin” is the All-Ukrainian portal of goods, services and knowledge exchange. “Plushkin” provides the possibility to prolong the life of clothes, furniture, equipment, books etc by giving unnecessary stuff and getting necessary one, instead of throwing it away. According to statistics, 30% of our expenses are spent on things we don't really need. Participating in Plushkin project we save our budget and take care of environment by diminishing wastes.

4. Do you make mistakes? I did....

Officially the message is: "Shared map in Google Drive has crashed and recovered on 23/24 February. Nearly all documents have been recovered.

Please do the following:

- Check your details in 1. contact and 2. faces at EANET (it would be nice if everybody who works for our project (write timesheets) would be mentioned)
- Check your IMR, Timesheet and convention form"

The real message is: "There were too many requests for different permissions on the shared map. We decided to backup this map, delete it and then, restore is to easy adjust the right permissions and restore all files....all files? Not really, some files were not accessible after the restore.... Mr. Gilles de la Tourette was with us for a short time, sorry.

6. The first strategic meeting with entrepreneurs alumni.

On 4 February Business League of “KROK” University Alumni Association hold the first strategic meeting with entrepreneurs alumni. The topic of discussion was the establishment of mutually beneficial cooperation between the entrepreneurs alumni and “KROK” University. What benefits can University and Alumni Association bring to entrepreneurs alumni and vice versa? The hot discussion with participation of 14 alumni lasted for 3 hours. Entrepreneurs expressed great interest and enthusiasm in participation in the process of curricula modernization, implementation of practical component into educational process and providing mentorship for students. The Business League of “KROK” University Alumni Association will be considered as the platform for exchange views, ideas, networking and partnerships, for providing professional assistance and support to each other, as well as the opportunity to promote the services and products of each other. This was the first strategic meeting, the next meetings will follow.
