You are so far away but so often in my mind....

1. September 2015: 10th Anniversary of HvA Entrepreneurship

In September 2015 the Entrepreneurship program “minor entrepreneurship” at HvA will start for the 20th time. This means that HvA will celebrate their 10th anniversary on entrepreneurship. In later newsletters we will inform you about what happened in these 10 years, our successes and failures.

The collaboration in EANET with you will be one of the subjects in the anniversary. For this I would like to use the anniversary to get traffic in our EANET, the concept is:

5 start-ups from every EANET partner present themselves in a simple way (could be text and / or small movie)

1. We offer: their service / product / we are good at...
2. We are looking for: description of what they need for their company to become better ( eg. website building and maintenance, ..contact in that could help us with .., ) But not customers that's what they try to achieve under "We offer"
3. How to get in contact.
4. Picture.

In this way we should have  $13 \times 5 = 65$  possibilities for trade from our EA network and create a little market place. HvA will promote these 65 possibilities with their

Alumni and wider network to support a match. “Are you going to help your startups and join us?”

2. News and update from ISU

Dear Partners, As the field monitoring visit was conducted in Georgia, we received a report from EACEA with the recommendations of how to improve the project. As the coordinator from ISU I would like to inform you that an internal communication within Georgian partners is improved - we communicated while planning establishment of EANET Center and created similar action plan and will further communicate regarding every work package. We are almost ready to the foundation of EANET Center at ISU and the Georgian Ministry of Education will be invited on this event. We will further communicate with them about our collaboration. We have four new start up ideas from the student groups working in Business Incubator. We will chose the best ones to help them in fundraising. The groups are very interested to participate in HvA event planned on September 2015, regarding minor entrepreneurship programs and we are very thankful to Michael for this opportunity. We are also working on „Newcomers start up contest" - where the winner will receive an opportunity of visiting Profund at Free University Berlin on an info tour.

3. Serious issue about data privacy laws and our project!!

Last week CHE consult warned Michael that there might be an issue with data privacy laws in Germany and the transparent way we handle our timesheets and convention forms on Google Drive. Result is that time sheets and convention forms of CHE consult will be kept on HvA servers instead of Google Drive. Question to you is: might your data be kept in Google drive from the laws in your country or should they also be kept in separate HvA servers?

7. Training session for the displaced citizens of Ukrainian East

“KROK” University is organizing the second 3-week training session for the displaced citizens of Ukrainian East (Luhansk and Donetsk regions), supported by Business League of “KROK” University Alumni Association. The training session started 7 March and will be conducted at the weekends. Entrepreneurs alumni are among the lecturers and coaches of the training, working as volunteers.

(Message from Krok)

8. “KROK” University organized the anti-crisis workshop

On 2nd of March, Inna Bilozir, entrepreneur alumni of “KROK” University organized the anti-crisis workshop for creating little sweet presents for the women on 8 March. As the prices in the shops increase, Inna offered the opportunity to create the beautiful flowery present using only one`s hands and imagination. Such activity can be also considered as art therapy that helps to relax after busy working day. Inna combines entrepreneurship with her work, she creates different interior decorations and handmade things for women, sells them and presents at handmade exhibitions.
