and Federico Fernandez (Senior Fellow, Austrian Economics Center). This will be an excellent opportunity to create momentum for our alumni entrepreneurs. Although there are frequent events on entrepreneurship in Moldova, rarely are the institutional barriers to it discussed candidly.

4. Upcoming meeting in Chernivtsi

The first week in June will be the third time EANET partners meet within the scope of our project. There are two activities planned: Project Steering Committee 3 (PSC3) on Monday and Tuesday and training on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday.

PSC3

For the PSC meeting 1 representative with mandate to vote per institute is invited! We nearly work for 1 year on this project so it is time to give each other an update on where we stand today. The official agenda will be send later to all contact persons of each HEI but the draft agenda contains the subjects below:

Draft agenda PSC3:

Presentation per partner of

1. Achieved results until now (not actions but results),
2. Comparison of results with planning and LFM (make visible on what point you are on schedule, behind and probably ahead. You are describing the difference)
3. Concrete actions that are going to be taken to get back on schedule if necessary. (What exactly?, by Whom? and When?)
4. Concrete upcoming results/deliverables for the next 6 month.
5. What help do you need from:
  - a. your own HEI
  - b. your EANET partners
  - c. the coordinator
6. What are you going to do, to organise this help?

When we spend 30 minutes per partner, presentation + questions we would give each other an update within 1 day!

PSC3 will be in English but we are going to organise a translator English-Russian.

Training

A draft version of the training program can be found by clicking this link.

This training will be in English and no translator will be available, so come with people who speak English! The best mix of people to send to the training is 1 person (teacher) who works with students / alumni that want to start a company and 1 person who facilitates startups.
